PHILOSOPHY:

I approach counseling using an integrative approach that is tailored to the client needs using one or more of the following techniques; cognitive-behavior, behavior, and family systems theory. My approach consists of teaching, supporting, and empowering clients throughout the therapeutic process. Using a non-judgmental, direct and interactive approach I work side by side with clients to achieve short and long term goals they want to achieve for themselves. Erica's supervisor is Bob Davidson, M.Div., M.Ed., LMFT, CSAT. Erica gets direct supervision, individual supervision and group supervision.
